Narrative: Officer Williams responded to [REDACTED] to check on the welfare of [REDACTED] who was reported as "not acting right". Williams found the suspect exiting the apartment complex and he yelled "I rebuke you in the name of Jesus". The suspect approached another vehicle and struck the hood of the vehicle and broke the windshield. The suspect was now in the middle of the road at University and Sixth in traffic waving his hands. The suspect then approached Williams squad car and struck him in the face through the open window. Williams exited his squad car and deployed his Taser at the suspect, with only one probe making contact with the suspect. The suspect fell to the ground, but would not comply with commands from officers. Williams deployed a second set of Taser probes, which made contact with the suspect. The suspect would not comply with officers and kicked at the officers as they attempted to handcuff him. Williams continued to reenergize his Taser (a total of 4 times), until the suspect complied. Sgt. Elston and Officer Jones were able to secure him in handcuffs. Officer Park and Cole placed a hobble restraint on the suspects legs. Suspect was transported to OSF Hospital by Pro Ambulance.

Use Of Force Full Details

Washington resisted arrest and while attempting to place him in handcuffs, one of the females, Shavon Tatum, interfered with officers and attempted to separate Washington from officers. Officer Garcia grabbed Tatum by the arms and escorted her away from officers dealing with Washington. Tatum continued to resist and Officer Garcia took her to the ground. She then began cooperating and was released. Officer Tran displayed his Taser ordering the suspects to quit resisting, but this had no effect. Officers took Washington to the ground in an attempt to place him in handcuffs, however he continued to resist. Officer Tran utilized his baton to force Washington's arm behind his back, where he was eventually placed into handcuffs. After Washington was placed in a squad car, Officer Lewis approached Tatum, to retrieve Washington's shoe, however she refused to release the shoe. Officer Lewis grabbed the shoe and Tatum struck him in the face with her right closed fist and then swung at him again. Officer Lewis and a CPD officer grabbed Tatum arms and placed her in handcuffs.
