Narrative: Officer Carter responded to [REDACTED] check on the welfare of [REDACTED] who was reported as "not acting right". Carter found the suspect exiting the apartment complex and he yelled "I rebuke you in the name of Jesus". The suspect approached another vehicle and struck the hood of the vehicle and broke the windshield. The suspect was now in the middle of the road at College and Fifth in traffic waving his hands. The suspect then approached Carter squad car and struck him in the face through the open window. Carter exited his squad car and deployed his Taser at the suspect, with only one probe making contact with the suspect. The suspect fell to the ground, but would not comply with commands from officers. Carter deployed a second set of Taser probes, which made contact with the suspect. The suspect would not comply with officers and kicked at the officers as they attempted to handcuff him. Carter continued to reenergize his Taser (a total of 4 times), until the suspect complied Sgt. Adams and Officer Edwards were able to secure him in handcuffs. Officer Diaz and Garcia placed a hobble restraint on the suspects legs. Suspect was transported to OSF Hospital by Pro Ambulance.
